Issues and Work Description	Work Description the low coolant warning light has come on a couple of times and tbh, once or twice previously over the last 18 months. I've then topped up low coolant level in the expansion tank and happy days for a while longer, although a bit puzzling.  I can't say I've noticed any water on the ground under the car much, or at all, but yesterday I replaced the expansion tank cap (with an OEM Audi part) thinking that maybe the seal had perished and when the engine is warm, coolant escapes that way?   ADVISED ON LAST SERVICE   Evidence of water pump leaking but coolant level above max  REPLACED WATERPUMP, THERMOSTAT & DRIVE BELT, RUN UP TO TEMPERATURE, ROAD TESTED ALL OK

Issues and Work Description

Work Description

After the most recent very cold spell, my Yellow Car thinks its tyre pressure monitoring system (TPMS) has a fault, indicated by a warning light coming up on the dash.

I've checked the tyre pressures twice and they remain exactly as they should be.

So I'm pretty sure this is just a sensor glitch.

Because this TPMS is related to the ABS braking system and traction control sensors these warning lights have also appeared.

Light is not on at the moment

light has been intermittent

FAULT CODE READ CARRIED OUT.

SEVERAL FAULT CODES STORED FOR OFFSIDE REAR ABS SENSOR AND MECHANICAL FAULT.

WHEEL BEARING INSPECTED AND ALL LOOKS OK.

REPLACED ABS SENSOR CLEARED DOWN FAULT CODES AND ROAD TESTED.

CARRIED OUT ANOTHER SCAN NO FAULTS RETURNED. ALL OK.

Please check your wheel nuts after 50 miles

It is strongly recommended tyres on 4x4 vehicles are used in identical sets of 4 (same size, make, pattern, load index &amp; speed symbol)

Vehicle manufacturers' recommendations should also be followed

WHAT IS A TYRE LABEL?

A Tyre Label is a snapshot of basic information for consumers purchasing motor vehicle tyres. (Much like the energy labels on white goods) Manufacturers of tyres for cars, light and heavy trucks must specify fuel consumption, wet grip and noise classification of every tyre sold in EU market starting in November 2012.
